

Psychology at Tougaloo

Explore the possibilities with a major or minor in psychology at Tougaloo College where history meets future and students are transformed for tomorrow's careers

Why Major in Psychology?

Becoming a professional counselor or psychologist requires graduate school and, at Tougaloo College, we have a special emphasis on preparing you for pursuing an advanced degree. But there are many jobs in the field of psychology available to you with a Bachelor's degree. Such possibilities include:

- Youth counselor, case manager, psychiatric or behavior tech, elder care tech, childcare worker
- Library assistant, teacher's assistant, special needs assistant, teaching at community centers or government agencies (e.g., GED, life skills, grief, crisis)
- Advertising/marketing, HR, sales
- Crime analyst, forensic psychological assistant, court liaison, victim advocate, paralegal, police officer, corrections officer, probation officer

Minor in Psychology

A minor in psychology can compliment almost any degree obtained at Tougaloo College. A basic understanding of psychology can enhance your knowledge and skills in:

- Child development
- Political science
- Sociology or social work
- Mass communication
- Economics and business administration
- Elementary and secondary education
- English
- Health and recreation
- Religious studies

To learn more about Psychology at Tougaloo, including degree requirements use the QR code below or call the Psychology Department at 601-977-7860

Psychology at Tougaloo

Explore the possibilities with a major or minor in psychology at Tougaloo College where history meets future and students are transformed for tomorrow's careers

Why Major in Psychology?

Becoming a professional counselor or psychologist requires graduate school and, at Tougaloo College, we have a special emphasis on preparing you for pursuing an advanced degree. But there are many jobs in the field of psychology available to you with a Bachelor's degree. Such possibilities include:

- Youth counselor, case manager, psychiatric or behavior tech, elder care tech, childcare worker
- Library assistant, teacher's assistant, special needs assistant, teaching at community centers or government agencies (e.g., GED, life skills, grief, crisis)
- Advertising/marketing, HR, sales
- Crime analyst, forensic psychological assistant, court liaison, victim advocate, paralegal, police officer, corrections officer, probation officer

Minor in Psychology

A minor in psychology can compliment almost any degree obtained at Tougaloo College. A basic understanding of psychology can enhance your knowledge and skills in:

- Child development
- Political science
- Sociology or social work
- Mass communication
- Economics and business administration
- Elementary and secondary education
- English
- Health and recreation
- Religious studies

To learn more about Psychology at Tougaloo, including degree requirements use the QR code below or call the Psychology Department at 601-977-7860

