

Local technology firm is currently seeking outgoing and professional personalities to promote our service offerings to small and medium size businesses in Mississippi. We are looking for confident, driven individuals with a professional sense of humor and a positive attitude.

Interested candidates, please email your resume to hrlisting@gmail.com

Current Openings:

Position – Outbound calling to cultivate new opportunities. We offer: immediate start in a professional work environment, great hourly wages, incentives, part time or full time hours are available, and much more!

Detailed Job Description

Responsibilities:

- Converse with area businesses to promote our company
- Communicate the services & benefits of our expertise
- Make qualifying observations of the opportunities
- Candidate needs to have good communication skills, clear and professional phone voice and be comfortable speaking about our services
- Candidate will need to be comfortable completing reports summarizing the days activities
- Candidate will need to be punctual and meet daily goals set by Sales Manager

Qualifications:

- High school education or equivalent and one to three years of customer service, sales or telemarketing experience or equivalent combination of college and experience may substitute
- Must be able to pass random drug screenings & initial background check
- Exceptional customer service background and communications skills with the ability to work well in a high volume environment
- Proven track record of ability to retain focus and persistence of delegated tasks.
- Interpersonal Skills: Exceptional verbal/written communication, listening, and attention to detail
- Experience establishing, maintaining, and documenting efficient administrative processes
- Highly self-motivated contributor who works well as an individual and within a team environment
- Work well in a fast-paced environment.