

Broadcast Engineer Employment Ad

WDBD-FOX, WUFX-MY, WXMS-IND of Jackson Mississippi, DMA 90, is seeking an experienced Broadcast Engineer.

Job responsibilities include all aspects of full and low power broadcast television engineering. All candidates must demonstrate solid RF, DTV and HDTV experience and have strong MCO, news studio and ENG operations knowledge. The ideal candidate will exhibit a successful budget based maintenance history, have formal television transmitter maintenance training, be able to demonstrate proven leadership, management and organizational skills as well as have an expert knowledge of FCC regulations and OSHA safety rules. The position will work closely with the Station Manager.

The ideal applicant will have a Bachelor degree with 5 plus years of broadcast television engineering and management experience.

Send resume and related materials to:

Marc Jaromin
President and General Manager
Jackson Broadcasting
One Great Place
Jackson, Mississippi 39110
tvjobs@jxntv.com

No Phone Calls Please.

Jackson Broadcasting, LLC provides services for Vicksburg Broadcasting, LLC through a shared services agreement. Jackson Broadcasting, LLC is an equal opportunity employer. Employment policies are based on merit, qualifications, competence and performance, and not influenced or affected by an applicant or employee's age, race, religion or disability.