

Creative Services Director Employment Ad

WDBD-FOX, WUFX-MY, WXMS-IND of Jackson Mississippi, DMA 90, is seeking an innovative Creative Service Director to lead its broadcast, internet and mobile image development. Individual must be able to demonstrate a solid creative portfolio, management history and possess excellent communication and organizational skills.

Job responsibilities include the overall development and execution of the three station cluster's on-air look, interactive marketing and community outreach. The ideal candidate will possess excellent writing skills, be proficient in a Final Cut Pro environment, be able to implement a positive, fast-paced, imaginative environment for a staff of five and have solid grasp of budget based execution for all aspects of station Creative Services and Promotion. Candidate will work closely with the General Manager in all aspects of news image, station promotion and community outreach.

The ideal applicant will have a Bachelor degree in a related discipline with 2 to 3 years of television marketing management experience.

Send resume and related materials to:

Marc Jaromin
President and General Manager
Jackson Broadcasting
One Great Place
Jackson, Mississippi 39110
tvjobs@jxntv.com

No Phone Calls Please.

Jackson Broadcasting, LLC provides services for Vicksburg Broadcasting, LLC through a shared services agreement. Jackson Broadcasting, LLC is an equal opportunity employer. Employment policies are based on merit, qualifications, competence and performance, and not influenced or affected by an applicant or employee's age, race, religion or disability.