Undergraduate and graduate students will pay a flat charge of $21 per credit hour to access ALL textbooks and learning materials for their courses in almost any format, including rental of traditional textbooks, access to e-books and online access codes. Depending on the format, course materials can be picked up at the bookstore or accessed electronically through your Tougaloo account. Please continue to check your email for access to the digital materials and also information on when your physical books are ready for pickup.

We realize that every student, academic discipline and course requirement is different. You will be automatically enrolled in the Follett ACCESS Program. You have received an email from Follett explaining in detail how the program works. We hope the benefit of the program is two-fold: the price of course materials will be reduced, and you will now know the full cost of your class up front with no surprise out-of-pocket expenditures after enrollment. Many of you will also be able to apply certain financial aid and scholarships directly to that portion of your costs.

OTHER FINANCIAL INFORMATION

UNOFFICIAL WITHDRAWAL POLICY

If a student stops attending classes at Tougaloo College and does not officially withdraw from the College, this is an act caused by the student, and is considered to be as an unofficial withdrawal and will be subject to general withdrawal policies. The date of withdrawal will be the latest date based on a student's attendance at an academically-related event (classes, symposia, i.e.). If the last date of attendance is not known, the midpoint of the semester will be used as the withdrawal date. Students who receive any form of financial aid must be aware that any change in enrollment status or withdrawal from the college may result in the repayment by the student of funds received from the financial aid source. In addition, the student may have College fees credited to their account as a result of funds returned to the source financial aid program.

HOUSING WITHDRAWAL POLICY

A student withdrawing from the residence hall within a specified period is entitled to a refund for room and board according to the prorated scale below. To be eligible for a refund, the student must properly withdraw from the residence hall. Students withdrawing or removed because of disciplinary action may forfeit the right to a refund. The date of withdrawal will be referred to as the date on which the Director of Residential Life is officially notified by the student with the submission of the completed Residence Hall Withdrawal Form. Refunds will be based on fees actually paid as of the withdrawal date. Refunds should not be expected until four weeks after the official date of withdrawal.

PLEASE NOTE

If you are receiving financial aid, a change in your enrollment status or your withdrawal from the college may result in your having to repay programs from which you received financial aid. In addition, you may owe fees to the college after funds are returned to the financial aid program.
