TOUGALOO COLLEGE: Seeks ASSISTANT or ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR for Political Science Department

Position Summary: Tougaloo College—a private four-year co-educational institution in Jackson, Mississippi—invites applications for a tenure-track appointment at the Assistant or Associate Professor level in Political Science, which will begin in the Fall 2021 semester. In addition, the faculty member will serve as the Chair of the Department. The successful applicant is expected to teach a variety of courses, including Introduction to Political Science, American Government, Comparative Politics, International Relations, Research Methods, Political Theory, and Senior Seminar. As Chair, the selected applicant will be tasked with 1) articulating a vision and strategic plan for the program; 2) overseeing the day-to-day activities of the Political Science Department and working with department/division faculty to design curriculum and advise students.

Experience/Qualifications: Candidates should have a doctoral degree in Political Science. Teaching experience at a community college, four-year college, or university preferred. The candidate should possess excellent interpersonal and leadership skills and have a strong command in quantitative analysis. Grant writing experience will be an asset. Ability to work collaboratively and collegially with faculty and community members is essential.

Application materials: Cover letter, current curriculum vita, copies of transcript, sample syllabus of a course taught, evidence of teaching excellence, statement of teaching philosophy, and three letters of reference that address teaching ability. An official transcript is required during the interview process.

Date of Position Opening: March 22, 2021

Application Deadline: May 15, 2021 (Review of applications will begin immediately)

Salary: Commensurate with background and experience
